

BOARD MEMBER BIO

Debbie Blakeman

Debbie Blakeman is an accomplished former HR executive, having recently retired from ATB Financial as their Chief People Officer.

Debbie brings 25+ years of leadership experience in business and Human Resources; has worked across Canada and overseas, with Calgary always being home.

Debbie enjoys gardening, travelling and biking, along with participating in various community and corporate volunteer work. She has a Chartered Professional in Human Resources designation and has a Professional certified Coach designation with the International Coaching Federation.

Debbie has completed the Advanced HR Executive Program from Michigan University Ross School of Business and has a graduate diploma in Executive Coaching from Royal Roads University.