

BOARD MEMBER BIO

Jason McGonigal

Jason is Vice President of Business Banking in Calgary with the BMO Financial Group, a role he has held since 2017. Jason's primary role at BMO is to support and develop his team to serve their customers & communities, grow their book of business while managing the overall risk profile. Jason holds a BComm from the University of Saskatchewan (2010), an MBA from Queen's University (2016) and is a CPA, CMA. Jason's first exposure to the Calgary Women's Emergency Shelter was in 2013 as an attendee at a luncheon held at the Emergency Shelter and additionally worked on the Take a Stand Initiative as part of the Capstone for his MBA. Outside of work, you can find Jason with his family (Yun & Amelia), barbecuing / smoking meat, volunteering as a golf & hockey coach with Special Olympics and occasionally on the golf course.